

Nellie Bell of Hagerstown recently won two contests at the Indiana State FFA Convention and was named to the 2010-2011 state officer team. Today Congressman Pence congratulated her on her recent accomplishments:

Dear Nellie,

It is my honor and privilege to congratulate you on your recent accomplishments at the State FFA Convention. I particularly want to congratulate you for winning the Prepared Public Speaking and State Fruit Proficiency contests. These achievements are a testament to your talents and work ethic, and you have made your family and community proud.

I also commend you for your service as President of the Hagerstown FFA Chapter and now as a State FFA Officer. I look forward to hearing of your continued success.

Sincerely,

Mike Pence
Member of Congress
